Application for Minor in Public Health Studies

The application should be used only by current Texas A&M University at College Station. Current students may apply for a minor in Public Health Studies completing the form below. The following criteria are used to evaluate applications:

Minimum 2.0 GPA in all TAMU coursework with a minimum of one completed semester at Texas A&M.

UIN: ___________________________ Name: ________________________________

Address: ________________________________________________________________

Phone: __________________________ Email: ________________________________

What is your current major: ________________________________

Total credit hours completed at TAMU: ____________

TAMU GPA: ____________

Why do you want to pursue this minor?
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

The following 12 hours of course work are required:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PHLT 302</td>
<td>Foundations of Public Health</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PHLT 303</td>
<td>Social Context of Population Health</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PHLT 305</td>
<td>Epidemiology in Public Health</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PHLT 330</td>
<td>The Environment and Public Health</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For the remaining three hours of credit students may select 3 hours consisting of any 3 credit PHLT course, or any other public health relevant 3 credit course approved by a Public Health Studies Advisor.

Print and hand deliver to BSPH room 269 at the School of Public Health when complete.

Student Printed Name ___________________________ Student Signature ___________________________ Date submitted ___________________________

Approved by PHS by ___________________________ on ___________________________.

Advisor’s name ___________________________ Date ___________________________